Canoe Racers Paddle 4½ Miles To Campus

It's a long haul from Shoaff Park to the Indiana-Purdue Campus via the St. Joseph River, but that's the course the Harbararbar Day Canoe Race will follow.

The two-man teams will vie for honors in the contest which is scheduled to start at 1:30, Saturday afternoon. In addition to empty beer bottles, swamped canoes, and floating bodies, the 4½ mile course will be cluttered with entrants from Indiana Tech., Fort Wayne Bible College, International Business College, Saint Francis College, and Concordia Senior College. Full-time or part-time students from this campus or any of the colleges in this area may enter the race.

Canvas canoes will not be permitted to enter the race, however, all other types will be allowed. Also forbidden is the upsetting of opponents' canoes, using World War II underwater mines, and dropping cement blocks on canoes from bridges.

Plaques will be awarded to the first two finishers, provided that two survivors make it to the end of the course.

Due to the large number of entrants expected, there may have to be two heats. The contestant with the best time will be given first place.

In addition to the plaques that will be awarded to the winning teams, there will be a canoe paddle given to the school which places the largest number of teams

May Tradition? You Will Decide

Since the doors of the Indiana-Purdue Regional Campus opened last fall, students have complained that there is nothing to do on this campus. With the formation of the Student Union, the social climate of the campus should improve considerably.

The one question which remains in the minds of many is whether or not the attempts of the Union Board will be thwarted, like so many other activities, by student apathy.

Harbararbar Day will be the Student Union's first test. The members of the Student Union Board and the people on the various sub committees have worked hard to make Harbararbar Day a success. The outcome of their efforts, however, depends on you.

— Ed.

Road Rally To Begin Harbararbar Activities

Saturday morning at 9:00, the first of the many planned activities for Harbararbar Day will commence as the first car pulls away from the starting line and heads out the north entrance of the campus on its way through the prescribed course for the Harbararbar Day Road Rally.

The object of the road rally is to maintain an average speed while following a given set of driving instructions.

The rally will be scored on the basis of how close the rally teams come to the predetermined time allowed them between check points along the course. Penalty points will be given for every second the teams are behind schedule, and double penalty points will be assessed for every second the teams are ahead of schedule. The team with the least penalty points after completion of the 70 mile course shall be declared the winner.

Trophies will be awarded to the first three teams and dash plaques will be given to all those contestants who complete the course.

All cars entering the race must be safety checked. To facilitate the checking of cars, a safety check lane will be set up by the State Police and the local chapter of the SCCA.

"This rally is not a speed contest. It is a test of the ability of a driver and his navigator to coordinate their efforts and successfully follow the given instructions.

Formal Caps Harbararbar Day

The atmosphere of a "turn-of-the-century" garden party will dominate the spring formal of Harbararbar Day, 1966, in the Student Lounge on Saturday evening, 9:00 p.m. to midnight. The dance will climax the day of spring festivities and will be highlighted by the crowning of the Harbararbar Day Queen by Jim Hulfeld, president of the Union Board.

Ken Truman's band will provide music for the couples. Special souvenir gifts will be given to each girl at the door and will be in keeping with the dance theme.

Hundreds of real flowers will be used to give the scene an authentic garden atmosphere, and an old-fashioned "gazebo" and a waterfall will be central areas of interest. Rooms off the lounge will be transformed into quiet garden corners and refreshments will be served there during the dance.

Tickets are available from any Union Board member and at a table by the cafeteria entrance during the week. They will also be sold at the door.

The members of the various dance committees are: Connie Gillen, Liz Nulf, Rick Leitz, Cindy Poffenberger, Jim Kanning, Ron Koczar, Sharon Wright, Craig Teeple, Phil Fraum, Jane Hetfield, Victor Moats, Sally Reed, Tom Fritz, Ron Guley, Ed Schowe, Linda Blare, Mike Bolner, and Molly Thompson; co-chairmen Sandi Meyer and Becky Gremaux; decorations.

Linda King and Phil Grody, refreshments. Napkins and matches, Jane Burch, Favors, Becky Gremaux and Jim Hulfeld. Sandi Meyer and Mike Bolner, tickets. And Denny Vogel, chaperons.

Candy Phillips, Sharon Richardson, Darrel Hetrick, Ardis Wittmer, Carol Meyer, and Rick Pfister; Laura Tinsley; chairman, door. Table decorations, Sharon Wright. Check room, Rruce Davis. Jane Hetfield, queen contest.

Invitations, Jane Burch. Sandi Meyer. Linda Nagel, Janet Young, Becky Gremaux, Cindy Conkle, Pat Grogg, and Joan Hemmerick, chairman. And Sue Roberson, publicity.

FINAL ADJUSTMENTS—Jane Hetfield is shown making the final alterations to Sue Pressler's formal as the two of them prepare for the Harbararbar Day Spring Formal.

TWO PLEASE!—Dave Wright buys his tickets in advance from Sharon Wright for the Purdue Experimental Theatre's production of Machiavelli's The Mandrake.

Lunch And Girl To Be Prizes At Box Social Picnic Auction

"You bid for the lunch, but you get the girl too!" will be heard as part of the spiel of auctioneer Joe Tonsing as he tries to tempt the male audience to take a chance at the Box Social, the noon feature of Harbararbar Day, 1966.

"The idea isn't new — Mom and Dad might have met this way — but the revival should provide a lot of fun, and everyone has to eat," Bruce Davis, box social committee chairman, stated last week. "The important thing is to get as many girls to sign up as possible. The proceeds will go to help on the expenses of the day and if anything is left over we hope to use it to provide a gift that will benefit the entire student body."

Girls may register for the event at the information desk or at the ticket table near the cafeteria entrance. Rules state that the lunch is to be boxed and decorated and identified, but that Tonsing will not reveal the name of the girl until the bidding is complete. If a girl wants a particular man to win the bid she will have to make her own arrangements with him before the auction.

Bidding will begin at 12 noon on the patio. An important feature of the event will be the awarding of trophies for the morning road rally. Following the lunch, the arbor committee, Mayor Zeis, and representatives of the two universities will plant the first tulip tree as part of the traditional event.

Queen Coronation Highlights Formal

Highlighting the gala Spring Formal May 7 will be the crowning of a Harbararbar Day Queen by Jim Hultfeld, president of the Union Board.

The queen and her four attendants will be selected by those people attending the dance. The entire student body will elect the five finalists May 4 from the twenty eligible candidates who represent the campus organizations or who have filed petitions containing thirty names.

The Mandrake To Play Here

Lusty 16th Century Farce Presented This Week-end By Purdue Theatre Co.

Machiavelli's The Mandrake, a fast moving, bawdy 16th century Italian farce, will be presented by the Purdue Experimental Theatre Company at 3:00 Saturday afternoon.

The production, planned by the Purdue-Indiana Theatre, is part of a planned program to bring good theatre productions to this campus. On previous occasions, as a part of this same program, PIT has brought The Fantastics by the Purdue Players and The Rivals by the Indiana Theatre Company to the Purdue-Indiana Theatre stage.

Prior to their appearance on this campus, the Purdue Experimental Theatre has toured the midwest and played at the World Festival of Student Theatre, at Nancy, France.

The 3:00 performance will be coordinated with the other activities on Saturday and will thus be presented as a part of the Harbararbar Day festivities. Other performances, however, will be given Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:30 for the benefit of the general public and those members of the student body and faculty wishing to attend.

The price of admission for the evening performances will be $1.75 for the general public and $1.00 for students and faculty. The cost of admission for the Saturday matinee will be $.75 for students and faculty and $1.50 for the general public.

the highest. The names of the winners will be inscribed on the paddle and it will be a traveling trophy from year to year.

After completion of the men's race there will also be a women's race. The girls will start at the landing and race down and around the bridge pilings and back.

Jim Kanning, chairman of the canoe race committee stated, "Along with the queen contest, the canoe race is one of the most central parts of the day. We hope that it will be a success this year, thus setting the pace for the years to follow."

Others helping Jim with the planning of the canoe race are: Ron Guley, John Brandeberry, Reitz Leitz, and C. R. Teeple.

Entry blanks for the canoe race may be picked up at the Circle K check room or in the activities office.

Sure, I want a car, but . . .

If you are under 25 years of age, obtaining an auto loan can often be a real problem. It may be because your credit is not established, that insurance coverage is high priced or tough to get, or perhaps you are a little short of cash for a down payment, or other reasons.

Well, friend, the boys at Indiana Bank understand the problems and work directly with you to give you real action on your auto loan. They're equipped to solve the problems of financing cars for young people. It's as simple as that!

When you're ready to buy a car, come in and talk it over at any of the five offices of Indiana Bank, the bank that's "young in heart." You'll find they're nice, "un-stuffy," and ready with the right answers for you.

Be a WINNER!

You'll be a winner of the PERFECT PAYMENT REWARD — a CASH refund, just for making your car payments on time. How about that? Ask your car dealer or visit any of the five offices of . . .

Tulip Tree Tradition To Begin With A Planting Ceremony

As the "arbar" part of Harbararbar Day, 1966, the first of what is hoped will become an impressive display of tulip trees will be planted by students and officials at 1:00 p.m. along the west drive of the campus.

Mayor Harold Zeis, representatives of the administrations of the two universities, and members of the arbor committee of the Union Board will participate. The "double-handled" shovel used at the ground-breaking ceremonies for the Regional Campus Building in 1963 will be used.

A seven-foot tulip tree, the state tree of Indiana, has been donated by Gibson's Florists. A marble marker will also be placed at the foot of the tree indicating the year the tree was planted. A row of the trees will eventually border the west drive between the main building and the river.

The ceremony will follow the awarding of road rally trophies at the box social and immediately
